

THE ORANGE DRAGON OF ENVY

Invidia

There's a dragon whose scales are the color of fire
If you lose to this dragon your situation is dire.
He wants you to compare yourself to all others
Which leads to an envious contempt for your brothers
Don't be fooled by this liar, you are loved and unique
The admiration of the Father is all we should seek.
Orange is creative like sunsets and seasons
And the workshop of Joseph, the terror of demons.
The Shield of Faith will protect you from this dragon's lies
For God loves you so much He is willing to die.
